

The Episcopal Church of the Nativity

Announcements

12 April 2026

Welcome and Happy Eastertide! We are so glad you are here! This morning, Ginny McCord leads us in Morning Prayer. Our musician is Sal Page. The sermon was prepared by the Rev. Barrie Bates, who is currently vacationing in Mexico. He returns late in the day on Tuesday.

Who Knew? Easter isn't over yet! While Easter Day came and went last week, the joyous 50-day season continues through until the Day of Pentecost, May 24 this year. In the fourth century, an ecumenical council actually forbade kneeling during this period. Perhaps we should consider forgoing our kneeling "heresy" and stand during this season?

Spotlight on Hymnody: Writing in The Hymnal 1982 Companion, Ray Glover tells us that "a cloud of confusion exists concerning both the identity of the author and the source of the tune" for Hymn 206, "O sons and daughters." This version sets the tune in a pseudo-Gregorian style, whereas Hymn 203 has it in a traditional triple-meter rhythm. Which do you prefer?

It's Not Too Late to view the enthronement of the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. and Rt. Hon. Dame Sarah Mullally. The liturgy took place on March 25, but you can still view it on YouTube. Just search for the Canterbury Cathedral channel. Archbishop Sarah is, of course, the first woman to occupy the throne of St. Augustine and serve as the spiritual head of the worldwide Anglican Communion.

Church of the Nativity, Post Office Box 228, Boyne City, Michigan 49712
episcopalboyne.org episcopalchurchofthenativity@gmail.com
The Rev. Dr. J. Barrington Bates, Priest-in-Charge

The Episcopal Church of the Nativity

Announcements

12 April 2026

Welcome and Happy Eastertide! We are so glad you are here! This morning, Ginny McCord leads us in Morning Prayer. Our musician is Sal Page. The sermon was prepared by the Rev. Barrie Bates, who is currently vacationing in Mexico. He returns late in the day on Tuesday.

Who Knew? Easter isn't over yet! While Easter Day came and went last week, the joyous 50-day season continues through until the Day of Pentecost, May 24 this year. In the fourth century, an ecumenical council actually forbade kneeling during this period. Perhaps we should consider forgoing our kneeling "heresy" and stand during this season?

Spotlight on Hymnody: Writing in The Hymnal 1982 Companion, Ray Glover tells us that "a cloud of confusion exists concerning both the identity of the author and the source of the tune" for Hymn 206, "O sons and daughters." This version sets the tune in a pseudo-Gregorian style, whereas Hymn 203 has it in a traditional triple-meter rhythm. Which do you prefer?

It's Not Too Late to view the enthronement of the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. and Rt. Hon. Dame Sarah Mullally. The liturgy took place on March 25, but you can still view it on YouTube. Just search for the Canterbury Cathedral channel. Archbishop Sarah is, of course, the first woman to occupy the throne of St. Augustine and serve as the spiritual head of the worldwide Anglican Communion.

Church of the Nativity, Post Office Box 228, Boyne City, Michigan 49712
episcopalboyne.org episcopalchurchofthenativity@gmail.com
The Rev. Dr. J. Barrington Bates, Priest-in-Charge